STAGE WEST WINS TWO PLATINUM READER'S CHOICE AWARDS

Stage West Mississauga has won two Platinum People's Choice Awards for Best Live Theatre, from the Metroland community newspaper group. The theatre won the awards in the Mississauga News and the Etobicoke Guardian. Stage West is nominated for two other Platinum Awards in the same category, in the Oakville Beaver and the Brampton Guardian. The results of the People's Choice Awards will be announced in the fall.

"It is truly an honour to be nominated by our customers and newspaper readers and to receive the awards in two newspapers and to be nominated in two other communities," says Mo Huq, General Manager of Stage West. "We will continue to strive to bring the very best in entertainment and offer the finest buffet possible. Our show lineup for the upcoming season is very exciting."

Little Shop of Horrors is currently playing until September 14, 2008. Upcoming shows for the next season include; the comedy Boeing, Boeing starring Peter Scolari of Bosom Buddies, Newhart and the TV show Honey I Shrank the Kids, runs from September 20 to November 23, 2008. The British Invasion returns by popular demand for the holiday season, running from November 27, 2008 to February 8, 2009, the hilarious comedy Married Alive plays from February 12 to April 19, 2009, followed by The Producers running from April 23 to July 5, 2009 and Niagara Falls, playing from July 9 to September 13, 2009.
